Your weekly guide to the latest news

This week's news from around the Council.

- Clean-up of fly-tipped raw meat

Click here to see the huge pile of raw meat that was fly-tipped in Wombourne during the Bank Holiday weekend. Removal of the fly-tipped waste was a priority for the Council and members of the Street Scene team were on hand first thing on Tuesday morning to remove the waste.

The news story was covered by BBC Midlands Today, BBC Online and the Express & Star and there were lots of discussions and comments on social media with many residents expressing their thanks to the Street Scene team for cleaning up the waste so promptly. If you have any information about the incident, or if you see anyone fly-tipping in the district, please report it using the Council's website at www.sstaffs.gov.uk.

- Annual Canvass 2019

Thank you to residents who have responded to the Household Enquiry Form. Every year, we are required to write to every household in the district to confirm that the details we have on the electoral register are correct. It is a legal requirement to respond to this letter and it's quick and easy to reply - you can do this online or by telephoning, texting or signing the form and sending it back. Click here for more information.

First reminders will start to be despatched shortly for those residents who have not responded yet. We have to follow up any non-responding households so please help us save money by responding quickly.

- Community Safety update

Last Friday, Staffordshire Police arrested and remanded a 26 year old male for theft of several motor vehicles in South Staffordshire as well as other offences in the West Midlands. He will be remanded until the case is heard at court.

- #CouncilsCan

On Monday 2 September 2019, the Local Government Association (LGA) is hosting a #CouncilsCan social media campaign to show some of the great work that councils do every day to keep communities running and improve the daily lives of residents. Keep an eye on the Council's Twitter and Facebook accounts throughout Monday and click here to learn more about the campaign.

- New courses coming this Autumn to Jubilee Wood, Bilbrook

Community Forest Services Ltd, a local community organisation creating positive connections between people and nature, is offering Staffordshire residents the chance to attend some brand new courses at Jubilee Wood in Bilbrook this autumn.

The courses are delivered through Community Forest Services and funded through Staffordshire County Council Community Learning. Most of the courses are free to attend but booking is essential.
